

ECSE DAILY NEWS REPORT

Welcome to the ECSE daily trading report for 9th May 2008.

Today on the Eastern Caribbean Securities Market, 10,000 Bank of Nevis shares traded at $6.00, down twenty-five cents or 4.00% since its last trade price.

Although there were bids and offers for other listed securities there were no other matches, and thus there were no other changes in the market prices of the securities trading on the ECSM.

And today's financial tip:

What is a prospectus?

A prospectus is a formal written offer to sell securities to the public. Its purpose is to help investors make an informed decision about the risks of an investment. A prospectus describes the issuing company – its business strategies, financial background, management, etc. – and provides information on how the proceeds from the sale of the securities will be used.
