

ECSE DAILY NEWS REPORT

Welcome to the ECSE daily trading report for 5th September 2007.

On the Eastern Caribbean Securities Market today, 9,900 shares of Bank of Nevis traded at $5.25, a decrease of twenty-five cents or 4.55% on its last closing price. Although there were bids and offers for other listed securities, there were no other matches and thus there were no other changes in the market prices of the securities trading on the ECSM.

And today's financial tip:

I wish to invest in an upcoming treasury bill issue, how can I buy the securities?

To purchase treasury bills or bonds issued on the Regional Government Securities Market, an investor is required to contact a broker dealer. Broker dealers act on behalf of investors who wish to buy or sell any of the securities listed on the ECSE or issued via the ECSE's primary market platform.
