And today's financial tip:

How do I, as a shareholder get the company to include an item on the AGM's agenda?

To get an item included on a company's agenda can be very challenging. The most feasible method is to arrange with other shareholders to petition for the item to be included on the agenda long in advance of the AGM. However, the most common practiced method of getting an item on a company's AGM agenda is to simply raise the subject under the item Any-Other-Business during the meeting.
